WORKING SCOREBOARD

The scoreboard works ONLY in the PowerPoint version. Google Slides, unfortunately, does not have the same capabilities so you will need to track the scores on that version.

INTERACTIVE GAMEBOARD

The point values only disappear after used on the Powerpoint version. Google Slides, unfortunately, does not have the same capabilities so you will need to keep track with the included question tracker.

The gameboard features a grid of 30 question cards (6 rows by 5 columns). The categories and their corresponding point values are:

ANIMALS	HISTORY	VIDEO GAMES	HUMAN BODY	MIXED BAG
100	100	100	100	100
200	200	200	200	200
300	300	300	300	300
400	400	400	400	400
500	500	500	500	500

On the right side of the board, there are several interactive elements:

- A vertical stack of three colored chevrons (yellow, pink, blue) above the text FACT & OPINION.
- A vertical stack of three colored chevrons (yellow, pink, blue) above the text GAME SHOW.
- A SCORE BOARD button.
- A RESET PAGE button.

QUESTIONS

STORY STRUCTURE FOR 200
